You, your friends, family, faith organization, clubs, civic organizations and your employers can help children of Illinois who right now are in profound need. With your gift to Children's Advocacy Centers of Illinois, you're supporting children who have suffered abuse and maltreatment. Your gift to CACI will support the services provided to our local children's advocacy centers throughout this great state. Your gift will help ensure that our children who are abused in Illinois will have the opportunity to access the CACs in their communities and receive the amazing, caring, healing and compassionate services that our CACs provide.
